Veterans Day Reflections

A few weeks ago, our country was faced with a national tragedy that forced the nation to come together in mourning and support. The men and women who lost their lives at Fort Hood will forever be remembered for their bravery and service to our country. Veterans Day gave Mike the opportunity to reflect not only on what it means to be an American but also on the immense gratitude and respect he has for those sacrificing their lives for this nation. Mike attended the Veterans Day celebration at Iowa Western Community College and is proud to call the brave military men and women and the families he met with friends.

National Press Coverage – Deal Magazine

The country is taking notice of Mike's campaign. The Deal Magazine, a nationally recognized print and online magazine, recently ran an article featuring Mike's candidacy. Please view the article and send it to your family and friends. You can find it at <http://www.thedeal.com/newsweekly/dealmakers/weekly-movers-and-shakers/the-candidate.php>.

Electric Charging Station Ribbon Cutting in Elk Horn

Mike believes it is time to fight for our Iowa families. That means expanding homegrown renewable energy sources and decreasing American dependence on foreign oil. Elk Horn, Iowa is doing just that. Mike was honored to be able to attend the hose cutting for the first electric charging station in Iowa a few weeks ago. Elk Horn is a model for western Iowa, focusing on the future, creating high quality jobs and attracting young talent to a small town. Mike is dedicated to expanding renewable energy opportunities and bringing good jobs, like the ones in Elk Horn, to other western Iowa communities.

Your donation will help bring the change needed in the 5th District. Please visit www.denklauforcongress.com today to contribute to the campaign and learn more about Mike's vision for Iowa.
